Liechtenstein, a tiny Principality of 62 square miles (about the size of Washington DC) is the fourth-smallest country in the world, with a population of only 38,000 inhabitants. Its land is bordered by Switzerland, the Rhine River, and Austria, and the official language is German. Part of the German Confederation until 1866; it is now a Constitutional Monarchy ruled by the hereditary princes of the House of Liechtenstein, a noble family originating from lower Austria. The Princes of Liechtenstein own one of the largest private art collections in the world. Their 14th-century castle nestling halfway up the Rhaetian Alps, dominates the capital, Vaduz. Today, Liechtenstein has strong connections with Switzerland, and its currency is the Swiss Franc. Its economy is based on finance and banking, specialized high-tech production (dental etc.), engineering, dairy farming, textile and wine production. Its postage stamps are works of art.

BUDGETING AND SHOPPING

The following budget guidelines are just approximate values or starting values for meals and are per person. Actual prices will vary widely by restaurant and city within a country but below are some averages as provided by our experienced personnel.

- The approximate cost of a soft drink/mineral water/coffee is 3.50-4.50 CHF.
- An average lunch consisting of a salad or sandwich and a soda or water starts at approximately 15 CHF.
- Dinner at a mid-range restaurant with dessert and a non-alcoholic beverage starts at approximately 40-60 CHF.

Please note that soft drinks and mineral water are often as expensive, if not more expensive than wine or beer.

TIPPING

A service charge is included in most restaurant bills, and further tipping is not required. However, if you would like to tip, round up the bill by a few Swiss Francs to show appreciation for good service (1-2 CHF per person for a modest meal and 5-10 CHF for meals in higher class restaurants). We recommend tips be left in cash and not added to the credit card payment.

For taxis, round up the fare to the nearest Swiss Franc.

Tip hotel staff the equivalent of CHF 1 for room service.

A few small denomination coins will be necessary for restrooms.

ELECTRICITY AND ELECTRICAL OUTLETS

Outlets

Voltage for outlets is 230V. North American voltage is generally 110V. Therefore, you will need a converter for your travels. Adapters will be necessary to adapt your plug into the outlet, but these may not convert the voltage, so both devices are necessary.
